Nineteenth Week of Ordinary Time

Sunday is the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus cautions us to be ready for the coming of the Lord. "Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into."

Monday is the Memorial of Saint Dominic, Priest. Wednesday is the Feast of Saint Lawrence, deacon and martyr. Thursday is the Memorial of Saint Clare.

This week we begin reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel. Ezekiel was a prophet to the people in exile in Babylon. He uses dreams and powerful symbolic visions - at first denouncing their infidelity and then offering hope for restoration and new life.

In Matthew's Gospel this week we reflect upon God's mercy and our call to imitate God's love. Jesus predicts his passion and miraculously resolves a conflict over temple tax. It is not the temple tax for which he will be executed, but for what he reveals about God's love and mercy to sinners. Jesus tells us we should "become like children": innocent, loving, trusting, humble. Jesus tells us the hard work we should go through to reconcile with a sinner. He says that whenever we are gathered together, in his name, he is with us. He tells us to forgive - over and over again - and tells the parable of the servant who is forgiven but won't forgive a fellow servant. Jesus speaks about the permanence of the marriage commitment. Children were not regarded very highly and the disciples tried to bar them from bothering Jesus. Jesus welcomes them - and all the powerless they represent: "for the Kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

ESTEMOS PREPARADOS,
PORQUE NO SABEMOS NI EL DÍA NI LA HORA...

- ❖ En que va a venir el “ladrón”, como dice Cristo...
- ❖ En que nos pueda dar en el pecho ese dolorcito que llaman infarto...
- ❖ En que el conductor atrabancado de un autobús o un automobillista ebrio pueda echársenos encima...
- ❖ En que se nos acabe el tiempo de vivir en la tierra...

Nota 1: El evangelio de hoy no es para que nos asustemos, no precisamente para evitarnos, algún día, un susto mayúsculo.

Nota 2: Cristo no se refiere al día de la muerte, sino al día en que el Hijo del hombre (o sea él) vendrá a juzgar a los vivos y a los muertos. Pero para efectos prácticos da lo mismo, ya que después de la muerte no hay tiempo para prepararnos.

Nota 3: La mejor forma de prepararnos nos la da Cristo al decir: “Dichoso este siervo, si el amo, a su llegada, lo encuentra cumpliendo con su deber (de hijo, de casado, de padre, de empleado, de ciudadano, de prójimo...)”.

RCIA

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Have you been attending Mass with us and have some questions about the Catholic Church, the Eucharist, Confession, Mary, etc.?

Have you been a Catholic all your life, but for some reason or another, have not received the Sacraments of Confirmation or the Eucharist?

Have you been away from the Catholic Church...and have now returned, but want to know more about its teachings?

Have you joined us from a different faith tradition and would like to know more about the Catholic Church?

If any of these questions apply to you, we would like to help you in your journey! Or if you know of anyone who could answer “yes” to any of these questions, perhaps you could extend an invitation to them! RCIA is not a program but a process that one goes through when becoming Catholic or completing their Sacraments of Initiation.
