

Mother's Day Novena

Beginning next Sunday, May 13th, we will begin a Novena of Masses (nine masses) offered for all our mothers, both living and deceased, whose names were submitted with the Mass Intention Envelopes provided for this special occasion. These envelopes have been placed in the pews of the church this weekend. You may turn them into the office or place them in the collection baskets. You may also give them to Fr. Orosco after Mass. We will also remember your intentions throughout the entire month of May in our Prayers of the Faithful.

Knights of Columbus – Annual Raffle

The KC will have their 13th annual raffle on Saturday, June 23rd starting at 6:30pm in the Parish Hall. Tickets are $100 each (only 300 will be sold) and will admit two (2) for a BBQ dinner. There will be (9) cash prizes: 1st prize: $10,000 cash; 4 prizes: $1,000 each and 4 prizes: $500 each (Need not be present to win). You can purchase your tickets from any Knight or call Frank Kasper at 972-563-9664.

Mass Intentions

Sound Catholic practice encourages us to offer the Mass for the departed and for those in any need. To request a Mass to be offered, please visit the parish office or return to the office a completed Mass intention card. Available cards are located in the foyer of the church.

Anointing of the Sick

Because of the Privacy Act, hospitals and nursing homes are no longer able to provide a list of the Catholic patients/residents for the Churches use in order to visit and administer the Sacraments of Holy Communion or Anointing of the Sick. Therefore, I need your assistance when you have a family member who is hospitalized or in a nursing home. Please call Fr. Orosco at the Church Office at (972) 563-3643 so that I may be of assistance.

each other as I have loved you.
John 15:12

Sixth Week of Easter

On the Sixth Sunday of Easter, we hear the powerful words that Jesus uses to send us on our mission: “This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain.”

On Thursday, around the world and in all but a few parts of the United States, it is the Ascension of the Lord. For those who don't celebrate it Thursday, the Ascension will be on Sunday.

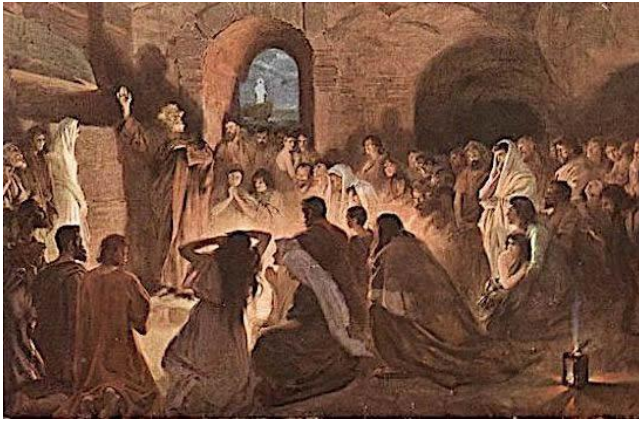

The Ascension readings give us the stories of the Jesus' being taken up to heaven from the beginning of Acts of the Apostles. Another version is heard through the last chapter of Mark's Gospel.

Our Easter season readings from Acts of the Apostles continue this week. We read of Paul and Silas in jail, and the conversion and baptism of the jailer and his family; Paul's bold speech to the crowd at the Areopagus and his fearless preaching in Corinth, despite the growing threat from the Jews.

In John's Gospel, we realize we are approaching Pentecost in a few weeks as Jesus begins to speak of his leaving the earth and of the coming of the “Advocate” - the Spirit of Truth. The image of the Trinity is clear: “when the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father...” To his disciples, the idea of his leaving fills their hearts with grief but Jesus reassures them, “it is better for you that I go” so that the Spirit can come to them. The Spirit “will guide you to all truth.” “So you also are now in anguish. But I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.” Jesus encourages them to pray: “whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you.”
